Ethics & Leadership in the Media

Bridging Disciplines Programs allow you to earn an interdisciplinary certificate that integrates area requirements, electives, courses for your major, internships, and research experiences.

In the interest of educating thoughtful and responsible leaders, the Ethics & Leadership in the Media BDP brings together resources from across campus to allow students to explore ethical questions related to the relationship between the media and society. Topics may include the ethics of representation, government surveillance, media law, media ownership, and ethical codes of conduct in media professions. Through the Connecting Experiences component of the BDP, you may work with community and professional organizations or bring your interdisciplinary expertise to faculty research.

Members include Minette Drumwright (Advertising), Madeline Maxwell (Communication Studies), Ethan Burris (Management), Rasha Diab (Rhetoric and Writing), John Dzienczkowski (Law), Michael Findley (Government), Steve Friesen (Religious Studies), Diane Ginsburg (Pharmacy), Linda Golden (Marketing), John Luk (Medical Education), Joy Penticuff (Nursing), Robert Prentice (Business, Government, and Society), Howard Prince (LBJ), Sean Theriault (Government), Juliet Walker (History), Patricia Wilson (Architecture), and Paul Woodruff (Philosophy).
